

2023 Call for EC Operational Committee Volunteers

OPERATIONAL COMMITTEE	NUMBER OF VACANCIES:	SKILLS SOUGHT:	CONTACT / APPLY TO:
Dressage	One (1)	Industry experience; extensive knowledge of the dressage landscape nationally and internationally. A strategic thinker with strong motivation, communication and problem-solving skills looking to work in a team environment. Fundraising and change management experience considered an asset.	Christine Peters, EC Senior Manager, Dressage Olympic/Paralympic Program E: cpeters@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5034
Driving	One (1)	Official, coach, driver or instructor; Understanding of principles of competition, sanctioning and rules, athlete engagement, development, programs and pathways; Established driving community connections	Rachel Huebert, EC Director, Sport Operations E: rhuebert@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5024
Endurance	One (1)	Official, coach, athlete or instructor; Understanding of principles of competition, sanctioning and rules, athlete engagement, development, programs and pathways; Established endurance community connections	Rachel Huebert, EC Director, Sport Operations E: rhuebert@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5024
Equine Medication Control	4 vacancies (1 steward, 2 veterinary, 1 other)	Desired Skills: Equine Veterinary Experience, Equine Medication Control / Clean Sport, Knowledge of EC competitions, Knowledge of FEI events, Equine Welfare - competition horses, Experience with Committee / Group work, Solution Focused	Shauna Curran-Cooper Coordinator, Equine Medication Control E: scurrancooper@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5026
Eventing	Two (2)	Extensive knowledge and understanding of the sport of eventing across Canada in the areas of competition organization and standards, officials, communications, coaching, athlete development and /or sport promotion. Knowledge of eventing internationally an asset. A team player - is positive and proactive with innovative ideas.	Fleur Tipton, EC Manager, Eventing E: ftipton@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 4391

Equine Health & Welfare	Four (4)	Background, knowledge or experience as an animal welfare scientist or researcher, equitation scientist, or veterinarian. Bilingualism considered an asset. Must be familiar with EC rules and possess an interest in elevating horse welfare.	Lindsay Nakonechny Coordinator, Active Equine Development Specialist E: lnakonechny@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5343
Jumping	Three (3)	Hunter/jumper industry experience; EC Rules knowledge; Financial and business acumen	Karen Hendry-Ouellette, EC Manager, Jumping E: khendry-ouellette@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 1023
National Awards	Two (2)	In-depth knowledge across Equestrian disciplines, current athletes and competition results, communications experience and organizational skills.	Melanie McLearn Director, Marketing and Communications E: mmclearon@equestrian.ca P: 343-308-4390
National Breed Sports	One (1)	Competitor, owner, breeder, trainer or competition organizer for Breeds represented in Section B of the EC rule book	Jean Klosowicz Manager, Equine Traceability Business Development E: jklosowicz@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5341
Officials	Two (2)	Previous experience working on committees and an understanding of EC and PTSO relationship/governance. Skill in the field of corporate education. Active and current experience as an official - at any level. Program Development, Communications (written) for programming	Rachel Huebert, EC Director, Sport Operations E: rhuebert@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5024
Para-Dressage	Three (3)	Industry experience; extensive knowledge of the para dressage landscape nationally and internationally. A strategic thinker with strong motivation, communication and problem-solving skills looking to work in a team environment. Fundraising and change management experience considered an asset.	Christine Peters, EC Senior Manager, Dressage Olympic/Paralympic Program E: cpeters@equestrian.ca P: 343 308 5034