

TENACITY AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Criteria

The TENacity Award celebrates the horse that has shown long term TENACITY in its years of participating in endurance rides. Over a minimum of 10 years, this horse has stayed healthy and been able to compete every year, recording over 2400km (1500 mi) in endurance distances.

The following conditions must be met for both awards:

1. The current owner must be a member in good standing of Equestrian Canada
2. The horse must be enrolled in the Equestrian Canada database
3. The horse may have been born in another country, but must currently be owned by a Canadian
4. At the start of its career, the horse conformed to the age restrictions in the Equestrian Canada rules
5. To count for mileage, completed rides must have been sanctioned by an Equestrian Canada recognized Provincial, National or International organization, including FEI. The rides may be from any country if the mileage can be verified
6. The horse must have completed at least one Equestrian Canada sanctioned ride
7. The horse must have amassed a total of 2400km (1500 mi) in endurance distances. All sanctioned rides under the endurance umbrella may be included except introductory Fun Rides. Limited Distance, Set Speed and similar rides DO count. Competitive Trail miles do not count.
8. The mileage:
 - a. Must have been accumulated over at least 10 years (TEN-acity)
 - b. Must include a minimum of 240km (150 mi) per year
 - c. May include only one year with a minimum of 80km (50 mi)
9. Distance may be accumulated with any rider, of any age or nationality including, but not limited to, the current owner.
10. A completed application must be returned for consideration by December 1st, to Equestrian Canada ATT: Endurance Awards (endurancecommittee@equestrian.ca)
