CAREER PATHWAY

General

This document outlines the process for obtaining EC credentials as a Dressage/Para-Dressage Judge. Details on maintaining judge status as well as developing and progressing are also explained.

Definitions

Auditing: Accompanying (to sit in) and being evaluated by a higher-level competition judge during a competition, without taking an active part in it. For each auditing (sit in) experience, a Dressage Judge Auditing Report must be completed and submitted to EC.

Shadow Judging: To informally judge at a competition and be examined by a mentor judge. Shadows judge the required tests, with a scribe, in an area close to the judge at “C”, with their scores and comments to be reviewed. Scores from the shadow judge do not count towards the competition. Both the shadow judge and mentor judge results are to be submitted to EC with a completed Dressage Judge Auditing Report. Shadow judges must obtain permission in advance from the competition organizer and mentor judge, and are responsible for supplying their own tests, scribe and calculations.

Co-Judge: To judge at a competition on a panel of judges, with scores to count towards the competition.

Recorded Dressage/Para-Dressage Judge Prerequisites (r)

The Recorded (“r”) status is the entry level for becoming an Equestrian Canada accredited Dressage/Para Dressage judge. This designation carries the responsibility of maintaining and enhancing one's judging skills through continued education and experience. A Recorded judge must demonstrate a thorough understanding of dressage competition, test criteria and the requirements of each level, and correct training principles. Recorded judges must have knowledge of Dressage/Para-Dressage terminology, in addition to an understanding of the EC Dressage and Para-Dressage rules and EC General Regulations. They are expected to provide scores and appropriate comments to competitors that align with the standards of correct dressage training, while maintaining fairness, confidence, and professionalism in their interactions with organizers, volunteers, competitors, and other officials.
