

Jennifer Pinkerton Announcement

On July 10, 2025, a Discipline Panel convened pursuant to EC's Discipline, Complaints and Appeal Policy rendered a decision in the matter of a complaint filed with Equestrian Canada about Jennifer Pinkerton, in which it was found that she violated various sections of EC's Code of Conduct and Ethics and s.5.7 of the UCCMS which prohibits boundary transgressions. EC was ordered to publish the full decisions with redactions, which can be found here.

In a separate decision from the same Discipline Panel received on September 11, 2025, Jennifer Pinkerton was sanctioned and is currently not in good standing with Equestrian Canada. As the appeal period is currently open for this decision, EC will not be publishing further details until the appeal period for this decision is concluded.

Petra Pinkerton Announcement

On July 10, 2025, a Discipline Panel convened pursuant to EC's Discipline, Complaints and Appeal Policy rendered a decision in the matter of a complaint filed with Equestrian Canada about Petra Pinkerton, in which it was found that she violated various sections of EC's Code of Conduct and Ethics including s.26 (persons of authority are prohibited from becoming overly involved in an athlete's personal life and / or using sexually explicit language, imagery, or conversations) and s.5.7 of the UCCMS (which prohibits boundary transgressions). EC was ordered to publish the full decisions with redactions, which can be found here.

In a separate decision from the same Discipline Panel received on September 11, 2025, Petra Pinkerton was sanctioned and is currently not in good standing with Equestrian Canada. As the appeal period is currently open for this decision, EC will not be publishing further details until the appeal period for this decision is concluded.