Erynn Ballard began riding at the age of five with her parents, David and Sandi Ballard, and entered the show ring one year later. Equally talented in hunter, jumper and equitation, Ballard became only the second Canadian to win the prestigious ASPCA Maclay National Championship at the 1998 National Horse Show at New York City's Madison Square Garden. The following year, she captured the individual gold medal at the 1999 North American Young Riders' Championship riding Leacock.

Ballard made her Nations' Cup debut at the 2006 Spruce Meadows 'Masters' tournament, helping Canada to achieve victory for the first time in the event's history, and was named the 2006 Equine Canada "Equestrian of the Year". Working in partnership with horse agent Ilan Ferder, Ballard recently made a spectacular return to the international spotlight, winning the $100,000 CSI5* Longines Speed Challenge at the 2018 Longines Masters of New York and being named to her first major games team for the 2018 World Equestrian Games in Tryon, NC.

Ballard is the professional trainer and coach for her family's business, Looking Back Farm. Known for her catch riding abilities, Ballard is often seen piloting a multitude of horses in the hunter and jumper divisions.

Lisa Carlsen

Birthplace: North York, Ontario

Birthdate: February 17, 1965

Hometown: Spruce Grove, Alberta

Lisa Carlsen emerged on the international scene in 1986 with Kahlua, considered one of the greatest horses in Canadian show jumping history. The pair won several major grand prix events to earn their place at the 1987 Pan American Games in Indianapolis where Canada claimed the team gold medal and Carlsen and Kahlua placed sixth individually. The following year, the pair made their Olympic debut at the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games before Kahlua was retired from competition in 1990.

Carlsen returned to the international spotlight riding La Boom, her mount for Nations' Cup events in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in 2010 and the 2012 Nations' Cup Promotional League Final in Barcelona, Spain. Now partnered with Parette, Carlsen is experiencing a renaissance of sorts. She is once again a frequent member of Canadian Nations' Cup teams and served as the traveling alternate for the 2018 World Equestrian Games.

Married to Dayton Gorsline, Carlsen operates Trademark Stables in Spruce Grove, Alberta. The couple has one daughter, Cassandra Gorsline, who is following in her mother's footsteps as a show jumping competitor.

Kara Chad

Hometown: Calgary, Alberta

Starting Gate Communications

Show jumping is a shared passion for the Chad family. Introduced to the sport by her parents, Kara Chad quickly progressed from competing in the pony ranks in 2008 to representing Canada internationally three years later on the Young Riders’ Nations’ Cup tour that competed in Belgium and Austria.

In 2014, Chad led Canada to victory in the CSIO4* Coapexpan, Mexico, riding Alberto II. She has since competed in Nations’ Cup events around the globe, including at such well-known venues as Aachen, Germany; Wellington, Florida; and Rome, Italy, as well as in her hometown of Calgary during the prestigious CSIO5* Spruce Meadows ‘Masters’ tournament. Chad was selected as the traveling alternate for the 2016 Rio Olympic Games with Bellinda, despite only being 20 years old at the time, and made her major games debut two years later riding Carona at the 2018 World Equestrian Games in Tryon, NC.

Starting Gate Communications

In 2015, Chad began training with three-time Olympic medalist Eric Lamaze, whose Torrey Pines Stable has bases in Florida and Belgium. She now works for Lamaze full-time, competing several Torrey Pines Stable sales horses in addition to her own mounts. At the 2018 Spruce Meadows ‘Masters’ tournament, Chad scored her first five-star victory in the International Ring, winning the $35,500 ATCO Founders Classic riding Torrey Pines Stable’s Viva.

Susan Horn

Birthplace: Toronto, Ontario

Birthdate: April 13, 1984

Hometown: Bolton, Ontario

Susan Horn first made a name for herself as the 2012 Jump Canada Talent Squad Eastern Division Champion, a means of identifying riders with the potential to represent Canada on the world stage, riding Zahara S. It would prove to be a sign of good things to come as Horn stepped up to the international divisions and was named to the Canadian Show Jumping Team short list for the first time in 2016.

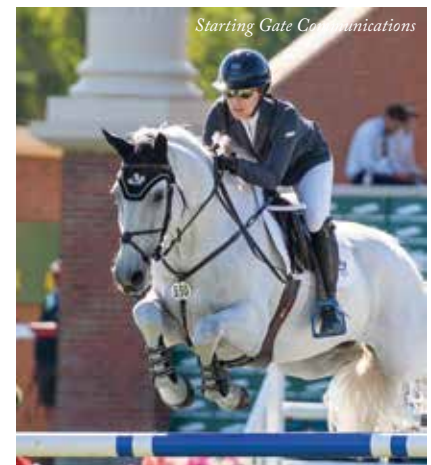

Her current goal of one day representing Canada in international team competition is on the brink of coming to fruition. Horn posted strong results during the highly-competitive Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL, this past winter, setting the stage for future team selection. While Lilly Fee is her most experienced mount, Horn has several promising prospects in her competition string.

Having studied economics and urban geography at the University of Toronto, Horn spent a brief period working for a transportation planning firm. She now enjoys the challenge of working for Kingsfield Farm, her family's small agricultural and equestrian facility.

Birthplace: Calgary, Alberta

Birthdate: May 5, 1969

Hometown: Calgary, Alberta

Growing up at his family's Paramount Equestrian Centre Ltd., Jim Ifko got an early start to his riding career. He quickly found success on whichever horses happened to be in the field at the time and eventually took on training and coaching as his full-time profession. He credits his father's love of horses and his own passion for the sport of show jumping for getting him to where he is today.

Ifko is currently based at Eventyre Farms, owned by his student, Rachel Cornacchia. The business includes a European-style sport horse breeding program featuring Ifko's current top mount, Diamant des Forets, as a breeding stallion. Equally successful in the show ring, Diamant des Forets enjoyed an incredibly successful 2018 season under Ifko, scoring several victories across North America. This spring, the pair made their Canadian Show Jumping Team debut in the €200,000 Longines Nations' Cup held at CSIO5* Coapexpan, Mexico, held one day after Ifko's 50th birthday.

Ifko, who has two daughters, Sofia and Isabella, enjoys spending as much time with his family as possible.

Eric Lamaze

Birthplace: Montreal, Quebec

Birthdate: April 17, 1968

Hometown: Wellington, Florida

Eric Lamaze made history by becoming the first equestrian athlete to win an individual Olympic gold medal for Canada with his beloved stallion, Hickstead. The incredible accomplishment came just two days after Canada won the team silver medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games. By the end of the 2008 season, Lamaze was ranked the number one show jumping rider in the world, a feat he would accomplish again in 2010 and 2011.

A three-time Canadian Show Jumping Champion, Lamaze has represented Canada in seven consecutive World Equestrian Games (1994, 1998, 2002, 2006, 2010, 2014 and 2018), claiming individual bronze in 2010 where Hickstead was also named "Best Horse". Considered one of the greatest horses of all time, Hickstead won every major grand prix title including Calgary (2007 and 2011), Geneva (2008), Aachen (2010), La Baule (2011), and Rome (2011) before his tragic death in November of 2011. Moving forward, Lamaze led Canada to a team gold medal riding Coco Bongo at the 2015 Pan American Games in Toronto, Canada. At the 2016 Rio Olympics, Canada finished fourth following a jump-off for the team bronze while Lamaze and Fine Lady 5 claimed the individual bronze medal.

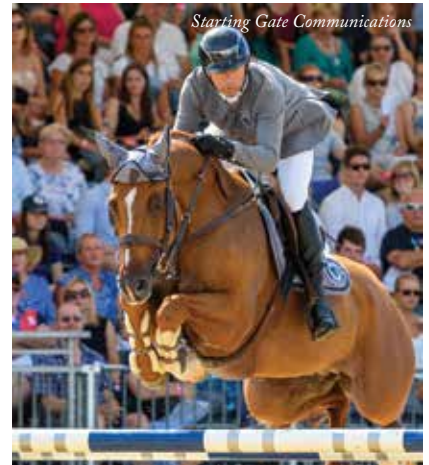

An avid golfer and property developer, Lamaze divides his time between bases in Florida and Belgium.

François Lamontagne knew horses were his passion at an early age and he turned professional as soon as he completed high school. Now a well-recognized competitor and Equestrian Canada-certified coach, Lamontagne has owned and operated Ferme Lamontagne in Saint Eustache, Quebec, since 2005.

Excelling on the national stage, Lamontagne was the 2011 Jump Canada Talent Squad Champion at Toronto's famed Royal Horse Show riding Undergroud des Hauts. The same horse would carry him to his Nations' Cup debut in Buenos Aires, Argentina, in 2012 before being sold to Lucy Davis, who renamed the horse Baron and went on to win a team silver medal as part of the U.S. team at the 2016 Rio Olympics.

Lamontagne now has another superstar under his saddle in the form of Chanel du Calvaire. The pair represented Canada in the Nations' Cup of Samorin, Slovakia, in the summer of 2017 before Lamontagne captured the Leading Canadian Rider title and Chanel du Calvaire was named the Leading Canadian-owned Horse at the Royal Horse Show in Toronto, ON. In 2018, they were members of Canada's winning team for the $450,000 Longines Nations' Cup at CSIO5* Ocala, Florida, before making Nations' Cup appearances in La Baule, France, and Rome, Italy.

Vanessa Mannix

Birthplace: Calgary, Alberta

Birthdate: June 4, 1989

Hometown: Calgary, Alberta

Coming from a horse-loving family, it is no surprise that Vanessa Mannix would follow the same path. Her father, Frederick Mannix, is a Canadian Polo Hall of Famer while her brothers, Frederick Jr. and Julian, are both highly-rated players. While Vanessa also played polo until the age of 10, she was drawn to the thrill of show jumping. Coached by Canadian Olympian Jonathan Asselin as a teenager, Vanessa began training with Ireland's Conor Swail in 2007 when she moved to Dublin to study business and politics at Trinity College.

Vanessa won her first FEI-sanctioned competition in 2015 at CSI3* San Giovanni, Italy, with Valerie F.S. In 2016, she made her Nations' Cup debut in Samorin, Slovakia, and was again named to the Canadian Team for the Nations' Cup in Gijon, Spain. In 2017, she won the €73,075 CSI4* Grand Prix in Coapexpan, Mexico, before helping Canada earn a second-place finish the following week in the Nations' Cup riding Grand Cru.

In addition to riding, Vanessa stays fit with cross-training, tennis, and golf. She enjoys reading and travel, which complements her international show jumping career.

Ian Millar

Birthplace: Halifax, Nova Scotia

Birthdate: January 6, 1947

Hometown: Perth, Ontario

Elena Lusenti

Aptly dubbed ‘Captain Canada’ by his fans, Ian Millar has ridden in more team competitions than any other Canadian rider. At the 2012 London Olympics, Millar set a world record by becoming the first athlete in any sport, from any nation, to represent their country in 10 Olympic Games. Millar achieved his best Olympic performance to date in London with a top 10 finish individually riding Star Power.

In 10 Pan American Games appearances, Millar has earned ten medals, including two individual and two team gold. In 1988 and 1989, Millar and his legendary partner, Big Ben, became the first horse and rider combination to ever win back-to-back World Cup Finals. In 2014, Millar led Canada to victory in the $300,000 BMO Nations’ Cup before winning the coveted $1,500,000 CP International at the CSIO5* Spruce Meadows ‘Masters’ tournament riding Dixson. Remarkably, Millar captured a record tenth Canadian Show Jumping Champion title in 2016, again riding Dixson. In May of 2019, Millar announced his retirement from international team competition and has turned his focus to the training and development of young horses and riders.

The most decorated equestrian in Canadian history, Millar is a member of the Order of Canada, the Canadian Sports Hall of Fame, the Ontario Sports Hall of Fame, the Jump Canada Hall of Fame, and is a honorary doctorate of the University of Guelph.

Brian Walker

Birthplace: Augusta, Georgia

Birthdate: October 12, 1983

Hometown: St. Lazare, Quebec

Swiat Koni

A dual citizen born in the United States, Brian Walker moved to his mother’s hometown of Montreal, QC, at the age of eight. There he trained with horsemen such as Gladys Adams, Buddy Brown, and Paul Valliere and won both the CET Medal Final and the Jump Canada Medal Final at the 1999 Royal Horse Show in Toronto, ON.

Walker spent his last three junior years working under the tutelage of renowned American equitation trainer, Missy Clark. In 2001 at the age of 17, Walker won the third annual R.W. ‘Ronnie’ Mutch Equitation Championship in Wellington, FL, as well as the $10,000 CK Equitation Championship riding Grappa at the Hampton Classic Horse Show. He would go on to claim the ultimate equitation title, the ASPCA Maclay Medal, at the 2001 National Horse Show, the final time it was held at Madison Square Garden in New York City. Walker became only the third Canadian to ever win, joining Laura Tidball Balisky and Erynn Ballard in accomplishing the impressive feat.

In 2003, Walker moved to the Netherlands where he spent two years working as a rider and horse scout for Dutch Olympic gold medalist, Jan Tops. Upon his return to the United States, he embarked on a professional career and enjoyed numerous grand prix placings. After relocating back to Europe in 2016, Walker was named to his first Nations’ Cup team and represented Canada at CSIO3* Samorin, Slovakia, in 2017 riding Carlson 93.

Nicole Walker

Birthplace: Scarborough, Ontario

Birthdate: November 4, 1993

Hometown: Aurora, Ontario

Nicole Walker grew up around horses. The granddaughter of well-known Austrian-Canadian businessman and thoroughbred racing giant, Frank Stronach, Walker was exposed to the equine industry at an early age. As a junior, Walker excelled in the equitation ring. At the 2010 Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto, ON, she won the Jump Canada Medal riding SS San Remo and finished second in the Running Fox CET Medal. A year later, the pair returned to The Royal to claim the 2011 Running Fox CET Medal title.

Walker then dominated Under 25 competition by winning several events during the 2017 season before claiming the Under 25 National Championship in front of a home crowd at The Royal riding Excellent B. The Royal has proved to be a lucky venue for Walker as, one year later, she captured the Canadian Show Jumping Championship title with Falco van Spieveld. Based on their incredible success, Walker and Falco made their Nations' Cup debut at the 2019 Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL, and, two months later, were members of the Canadian Team for the Longines Nations' Cup held at CSIO5* Coapexpan in Mexico.

Walker currently trains with 2012 Olympic individual bronze medalist Cian O'Connor of Ireland. She is based at Adena Springs in Aurora, ON.

Tim Wilks

Birthplace: Isle of Man

Birthdate: January 2, 1995

Hometown: Henley on Thames, England

Tim Wilks grew up on the Isle of Man where his mother's family ran a riding school. In the summers, they would travel to England to compete, basing out of his grandparent's Rosehill estate located in Henley-on-Thames. Eventually, Wilks's parents decided to relocate permanently to Rosehill, and today run a successful training and sales operation, IN Show Jumpers, headed by Wilks's mother, Caroline.

Showing great promise as a junior, Wilks was a member of Great Britain's bronze medal team at the 2012 European Junior Championships and also competed at the 2016 European Young Riders' Championships. Having spent two years training in Europe with Dutchman Henk Nooran, Wilks went on to represent Team GB in senior competition including at the 2016 Nations' Cup at CSIO5* Falsterbo, Sweden, where he jumped double-clear riding Quelbora Merze.

Holding dual Canadian and British citizenship, Wilks made the decision to ride for his father's native country and, in 2019, he made his Canadian Nations' Cup debut at CSIO5* La Baule, France. Fittingly, he made his first competitive appearance outside of Europe at the 2019 Spruce Meadows 'Summer Series' in Calgary, AB.

Success in equestrian sport runs in Wilks's family. His younger sister, Anna, was the 2015 Junior European Eventing Champion. Now focused solely on show jumping, Anna works alongside her brother at Rosehill where they have approximately 30 horses in training. Despite his busy training and competition schedule, Wilks is committed to daily fitness and is studying towards a degree in business management.

Mark Laskin Chef d'Equipe

Birthplace: New York, New York

Birthdate: October 19, 1957

Hometown: Langley, British Columbia

A familiar face in Canada's equestrian community, Mark Laskin has been heavily involved with the Canadian Show Jumping Team for the past three decades, first as a rider, and now as the team's chef d'équipe. Laskin officially took over the role on October 1, 2012, after spending several years mentoring under his predecessor, Terrance "Torchy" Millar.

Born in New York, Laskin got his start with horses when his family moved to Edmonton, AB, when he was five. His mother, a long-time horse lover, would often take Laskin to the stables in lieu of leaving him with a babysitter. Since his early beginnings in the sport, Laskin has enjoyed tremendous success both as a rider and coach.

In 2007, Laskin was inducted into the Jump Canada Hall of Fame as part of the gold medal winning team at the 1980 Alternate Olympics held in Rotterdam, the Netherlands. Riding Damuraz, Laskin had posted one of only three double-clear rounds to lead Canada to victory.

Laskin competed at the grand prix level throughout the United States and Canada from his base in Santa Fe, New Mexico, before returning to Canada in 1997. In partnership with Brian Morton, he owned and operated Equimark Inc., based in Langley, BC. Laskin, who has two children, is now focusing on developing his own training business.
