

LESLIE KENNEDY

Photo Credit: Courtesy of Leslie Kennedy

Leslie Kennedy of Fergus, ON, has been a professional in the equestrian industry since 1972. As a dressage athlete, she trained and competed her own horse successfully to the Grand Prix level, and also produced many champions in western dressage.

First certified as an official in 2003, Kennedy now holds certification as an EC Senior Judge and Steward for both Dressage and Para-Dressage. She is also an FEI 1* Dressage Steward and Western Style Dressage Association of Canada Judge. Kennedy has judged many championships across Canada and lent her time and expertise as a Steward to the TORONTO 2015 Pan American Games. Additionally, Kennedy is EC certified as an English Competition Coach Specialist.

Whether through her role as an official or coach, Kennedy is passionate about helping others attain their goals and is a valuable asset to the Canadian dressage community.